SPRING WORKSHOPS & SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULED

Workshops

Three free workshops on Reducing Your Carbon Footprint will be presented at the Lake Eustis Institute on successive Fridays, March 4, 11, and 18 from noon to 1 PM.

Offering 101 easy tips for living a "greener" life, guest speakers will give advice on things we can all do in our homes, landscapes, and shopping. Reservations are required. Call 352.357.3995 and bring your lunch.

Artist Diane Oliva will present a Charcoal Drawing and Pastels Workshop on Saturday, March 12th from 1 – 3 PM. The class is designed for the beginner to intermediate students. Students will focus on charcoal drawing with an emphasis on values and continue with color dynamics utilizing the brilliance of pastel. The workshop will be limited to 10 persons.

Diane Oliva has a BA from Adelphi University and over 27 years of teaching experience in Portraiture and Still Life. She has juried numerous art exhibitions in the L.I., N. Y. area. Recent awards are: Best in Show, Central Florida Fair 2010 First Place Pastels, Central Florida Fair 2010 First Place Pastels, Lake County Fair 2010.

Bring your own soft pastels; box of 48 if possible. No oil or nupastels. Charcoal, hardboard, clips, eraser and canson pastel paper will be provided. The fee for the workshop is $25.

Symposium

Building on last spring's successful symposium, Best Exit Strategies, this spring on Friday, April 1st the Institute will offer a symposium on Living to be 100...and enjoying doing it. Tentatively scheduled from 9 AM to 1:30 PM (lunch included), the symposium will offer several workshops on proven strategies for having a long and enjoyable life. The fee is $30 and reservations are now being accepted. Call 352.357.3995.
